The renegade® is a proven performer. Just ask Chad Crittenden, a cancer survivor and competitor on the CBS reality show Survivor Vanuatu. He'll tell you that the component will stand up to just about any test you can put it through – even 29 straight days of sand, surf, and sport on a remote island. For those seeking a highly responsive shock component that is durable, maintenance free, and flexible at all gait speeds, the renegade® truly has it all.
