Opie spent many years in school learning and studying about orthotics and prosthetics.

Every story has a beginning...

Opie studied many subjects under great masters.

Sometimes Opie imagined what O&P would be like in the future.

The Great Council recognized young Opie's potential.

They gave him a mission to revolutionize O&P with technology.