Part of the family...

At Ohio Willow Wood, we're all part of the family. No one knows a stranger here, and around every corner you'll find a smiling face. "Teamwork" is our defining quality. Our employees are completely committed to improving the lives of amputees and simplifying the lives of prosthetists. We stand behind our products, and remain on the cutting edge of technology, only because we care. At Ohio Willow Wood, we know who is important—you.
